

A Special Winery Experience in the old family cellar Wine Yard N1

Wine tours Kakheti

Overview

- For better understand how wine culture is connected to Georgia, how Georgians make it and what the main things are to know about Georgian wine, visit one of the authentic family wine cellar in Kakheti. The traditional process of winemaking in Georgia has been on the Intangible Cultural Heritage List of UNESCO for quite some time now. That is the one of the most interesting things, that attract “wine-lovers”.

Tour Description

- Wine Yard №1 is a unique family-run tourist destination that combines a house, yard and wine cellar which has been in our family for three generations. Our family invites you into our home to show and submerge you in traditional Kakhetian family life including our famous feast, master of ceremonies (Tamada), homemade wine & food, folklore, agricultural traditions, and so on.
- Our guests are invited to visit our wine cellar that has been in use for three generations, pour wine from a traditional Qvevri and enjoy drinking it. It is also possible to take part in a distillation process for making Chacha from the left-overs of our wine production. Furthermore, our guests may participate in our grape harvest called Rtveli in Georgian. Other activities that we offer are making Churchkhela, baking bread, cooking master classes, horse riding, fishing visiting a trout farm, a picnic in the valley and other agricultural activities.
