

Aleksandre Chavchavadze House Museum

Museums Kakheti

Museum is situated in the palace of the famous Georgian poet where visitors may observe both, the life and creative works of the poet and epistolary and iconographic archives of his epoch which belong to the XIX century, manuscripts, photo works of Ermakov, sketches and lithography, furniture, vessels, musical instruments; Aleksandre Chavchavadze built a decorative garden in 1830 which for the present moment covers 18 hectares. Plants of different species – curative, specially designed and others, also different exotic species. In 1835 one of the first wine cellars of Georgia was built here. Wines of unique types from different countries are kept at that cellar.