Tour Description

Important information

- Lake Bateti is located in the Kareli district, in the Valley of Dzama. Bateti is a lake of ravine origin, on one side of it there is a swamp, overgrown with horsetails, which causes a green shade and a special beauty of the lake. Around the lake there is an endlessly beautiful forest with large trees, therefore Bateti guarantees unforgettable beauty and indelible impressions all year round.
- Monastery complex of Kintsvisi in honor of St. Nicholas - is located in the municipality of Kareli, dating back to the 12th-13th centuries. The complex includes the church of St. Nicholas, the St. Virgin Mary, the ruins of the church of St. John the Baptist, the Little Church, the newly built small church of St. Shio Mgvimeli and other buildings. The complex is distinguished by its wall painting. It is worth noting the frescoes of George III, Queen Tamar, Lasha-Giorgi, also "The Kintsvisi Angel" depicted in the Resurrection scene, which amazes the visitor, the fresco is ahead of the achievements of the Italian Sienese art school of the Renaissance times.
- Sarkineti Monastery is a fusion of modern and ancient time, which is expressed in the technique of its structure. The monastery is carved into the rock, and sacred services are continuously served there. The monastery makes it even more attractive that there are no more carved churches in Georgia in such solid rock formations as in Sarkineti.
- The Monastery of the Assumption of the Virgin - Ortubani is located in the Kareli district, in the village of Ortubani. The complex dates back to the 17th-18th centuries. It consists of the Church of the Nativity of Virgin Mary and the seven-story bell tower, which dates back to the 17th century. In the monastery there is a marvelous garden, on each leaf you can see the imprint of the care of nuns. You can really feel peace of mind here.
