Tour Description

Important information

- In the Borjomi gorge, in the most beautiful place is Chitakhevi Monastery of St. George. People called it the Green Monastery, because here each tree has the colors of a special green hue, as well as the stones with which the monastery is erected - all green, some dark, some lighter.
- Rabati Fortress – fortress, located in the city of Akhaltsikhe, was founded in the IX century and was the residence of princes of those times. The fact that the castle was built by the princes with a refined taste and they lived here is witnessed by every stone of the fence, every pillar, design, and location of the fortress.
- The Safara monastery complex is located in a narrow gorge surrounded by a forest cover of a high rock terrace, to the northeast of which the river Uravelistskali is flowing. The monastic complex consists of numerous structures from different eras, dates back to the X century and is referred to as the spiritual treasure of Georgia.
- Borjomi mineral water park, immersed in an evergreen gorge, is attractive all year round. The park covers an area of more than 30 hectares. Vacationers can enjoy the beauty of nature, organize hikes, picnics, have fun at various attractions, swim in the pool and spend time as they please.
